RANGIWAEA SCHOOL NEWSLETTER #37

2nd December 2010

Children enjoyed a very hot Athletics day down at Papanui Junction School with other children from Papanui Junction and Ngamatea Schools. All of our children did extremely well in all of the events and congratulations to Kelly Lowery for winning the Aggregate Cup and a special congratulations to Ashleigh Alabaster for also accumulating the same total of points as Kelly. Thank you to Kylie Robson for driving the (very full) white bus down and back to Papanui.

A big thank you to Aaron and Rachel Couchman for organising the Target Hole and Sausage Sizzle at the Waiouru Golf Club's Christmas Cheer. A very successful day was had. Also thank you to Jo Lobb, Grant Nisbet, Marci Collier and all of the children who came and helped on the day. Your support and help on the day was most appreciated.

NOTE: This morning we are flying our flag at half mast in recognition of Remembrance Service for those lost in the Pike River Coal Mine accident. We will be observing 2 minutes silence at 2pm. Our thoughts and condolences are with all of the family members of the miners.
